Accordingly, in addition to any other legal remedies which may be available, Comodo may seek and obtain an injunctive order against a breach or threatened breach of the Agreement by Subscriber.
- 8.2. Limitation on Actions. Except for actions and claims related to a party's indemnification and confidentiality obligations, all claims and actions arising from this Agreement must be brought within one (1) year from the date when the cause of action occurred.

- (i) Comodo shall follow the privacy policy posted on its website when receiving and using information from the Subscriber. Comodo may amend the privacy policy at any time by posting the amended privacy policy on its website. Subject to section 10(ii), Comodo shall use reasonable efforts in protecting Subscriber's information. Subscriber acknowledges that risks remain that are beyond Comodo's reasonable control and waives all liability of Comodo for these risks.
- (ii) Subscriber consents to 1) Comodo disclosing Subscriber's information publicly by embedding the information in issued Certificates and 2) Comodo disclosing and transferring Subscriber's information to third parties located outside of the European Union as necessary to validate and issue Certificates.
- (iii) Subscriber may opt-out of having information used for purposes not directly related to the Services by emailing a clear notice to optout@comodo.com. Subscriber shall periodically review the website to be aware of any changes. Subscriber may terminate the Agreement if Subscriber does not agree to the amendment. Subscriber's continued use of the Services after an amendment is posted constitutes Subscriber's acceptance of the amendment.
- 11.5. Waiver. A party's failure to enforce a provision of this Agreement will not waive the party's right to enforce the same provision later or right to enforce any other provision of this Agreement. To be effective, all waivers must be both in writing and signed by the party benefiting from the waived provision.

- 11.6. Assignment. Subscriber shall not assign any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of Comodo. Any transfer without consent will be void. Comodo may assign its rights and obligations without Subscriber's consent.
